LITTLE SCHOOLMATE SERIES

Edited by MISS FLORENCE CONVERSE of the staff of The Atlantic Monthly

STORIES

for children who wonder how they might have lived, and learned, and played, if their fathers had not come to this country.

STORIES

which show what gift or grace or ideal the people of each country are bringing to the making of Young Americans.

Now Ready: UNDER GREEK SKIES

By Mme. JULIA D. DRAGOUMIS

Frontispiece in colors and other illustrations, Cloth, $1.00 net

The author of those stories of Greek life whose atmosphere readers of The Atlantic have so greatly enjoyed, here tells the stories of Greek children, showing incidentally how their inheritance of the love of beauty and of country is developed.

READY VERY SHORTLY

IN SUNNY SPAIN

By KATHARINE LEE BATES, of Wellesley College

Frontispiece in colors and other illustrations, Cloth, $1.00 net

Quite the most delightful picture of Spanish child life in English literature. The homes, the games, the rhymed riddles, travel in donkey trains, fiesta week in the old cathedral town, the quaint courtesy which is the second nature of a Spanish child—all are a part of the bright-colored picture.

To Follow: A BOY IN EIRINN, by Padraic Colum; and other volumes picturing life in France, Germany, Scotland, etc.

THE 75 THOUSANDTH COPY OF POLLYANNA THE GLAD BOOK

is now in our stockroom. We confidently expect to announce the 100 thousandth copy in our next advertisement. Incidentally another 100,000 of the unique POLLYANNA GLAD CLUB BUTTON PINS are ready for distribution, and another supply of the Club Pennants.

As might have been expected, the September demand for POLLYANNA THE GLAD BOOK was the best of any month so far—upwards of 15,000 copies. The October demand should be on the average upwards of 25,000, and the holiday demand during November and December should make POLLYANNA the biggest book of the year.

Mr. Leigh Mitchell Hodges, The Optimist, in an editorial for the Philadelphia North American, says: "And when, after POLLYANNA has gone away, you get her letter saying she is going to take 'eight steps' to-morrow—well, I don't know just what you may do, but I know of one person who buried his face in his hands and shook with the gladdest sort of sadness and got down on his knees and thanked the Giver of all gladness for POLLYANNA."

If we are unable to supply all orders instantly, please bear with us and, to make sure, won't you order in advance of your actual needs? To mention a single difficulty, the special silk cloth, in which POLLYANNA is bound, is not carried in stock in this country and the importations have to be arranged several weeks in advance.

As Mr. John Wanamaker says: "THE POLLYANNA GLAD BELLS are ringing loud and clear!"

We are glad also to mention the increased demand for all of Mrs. Porter's books, for example:

YOUTH WILL BE SERVED

BY DOLF WYLLARDE

Dolf Wyllarde's new novel has for its motive the paramount importance of the new generation. Incidentally it deals with the old problem of a wife's duty to her husband when he is serving his country abroad in climates which would be disastrous to her health and to which she cannot take a delicate baby. There is no question of sex in this book, for it deals very largely with the inevitable sacrifice of the old for the young which is a spirit of the present age—the standing aside of those who have had their day to give place to the new generation.

THE UNDERWOOD TARIFF AND THE BOOK TRADE.

On Tuesday of this week the report of the conference committees on the Underwood Tariff bill was adopted by the House; on Thursday by the Senate; and the measure awaits only the assured signature of the President to become law. In the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY for April 19th last was printed the first draft of those portions of the bill which were of interest to the book trade; elsewhere in this issue we reprint these sections showing the results of the modifications made during the six months' discussion the measure has undergone.

In number these modifications are large. Few of them are, however, significant; many being textual amplifications providing either greater inclusiveness or more exact definition. In general, such actual rate changes as were made in articles about which the book trade is concerned, are decreases rather than increases. Certain kinds of fancy papers show slightly increased rate.

To offset these, however, binder's thread is reduced in the revised bill from 25 per cent. and 30 per cent. to 20 per cent. and 25 per cent. respectively. Coated book papers are reduced from 35 per cent. to 25 per cent, and, most important of all, morocco leather and other bookbinders' skins are put on the Free List. Books remain at 15 per cent. as against the 25 per cent. of the Payne-Aldrich law; and the attempt to place this tariff upon books in foreign languages failed. Picture postcards are changed from 45 per cent. to 20 cents a pound—a reduction. To the free list are added specifically "all textbooks used in schools and other educational institutions"—to be regarded rather as a textual amplification than as real additions. This latter reduction is seeming rather than real, in view of the fact that all books, inclusive of school books, are protected under the copyright law by actual prohibition of importation unless copyright is forfeited or in case of non-copy-right works.

It should be noted also that the clause affecting books in leather and silk binding, which was sneaked into the Payne-Aldrich bill, has been eliminated, so that all books, whatever their binding, will be dutiable at the standard rate of 15%.

The most serious feature of the Underwood Tariff Bill is the new administrative methods provided for, which make rather an astonishing attachment to a "tariff reform" measure. It has always been the policy of a customs administration under the high tariff system to construe all provisions not only literally but against the importer. As a matter of fact an importer, and indeed any citizen coming from abroad with his baggage, is held guilty until he proves himself innocent. The administrative methods provided for in the new law carries the suspicion and espionage a step farther than ever before, and it is unfortunate that the general protest against this feature has not been heeded. The book trade is likely to suffer in common with other trades through these provisions, to an extent of inconvenience and annoyance if not of actual stoppage of business that cannot easily be prophesied. To the new rates themselves, business will probably adjust itself without any of the serious consequences which the calamity prophets have been prophesying, and the more is the pity that a bill trending toward freedom from taxation should be encumbered with such serious drawbacks.

THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY is planning to cooperate with the bureau recently established by a number of the leading publishing houses in the publication of "Selling Helps," collected and edited by Mr. Richard B. G. Gardner, who has the active publicity work of the bureau in charge. This little department—if it be dignified with that more pretentious title—will have but one object: to give the bookseller hints for selling more books. Store displays, newspaper and circular advertising, window trims, selling methods in the store, co-operative plans between dealer and publisher, follow-up systems, sales training of clerks, etc.,—all these are important influencing factors in book sales and concerning all of them Mr. Gardner will, we believe, have from time to time something to say.

BOOKS AND BOOK MATERIALS IN THE FINAL REVISION OF THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

THE following items relating to books and book materials are taken from the new tariff bill "to provide revenue, equalize duties, and encourage the industries of the United States," introduced on April 7 in the House of Representatives by Mr. Underwood, as revised by the Senate and finally agreed to by the conference committees:

DUTIABLE. Schedule C., Metals, etc.		Payne- Aldrich Law.	Under- wood Bill.

FREE.
422. Bibles, comprising the books of the Old or New Testament, or both, bound or unbound.

432. Books, engravings, photographs, etchings, bound or unbound, maps and charts imported by authority or for the use of the United States or for the use of the Library of Congress.

433. Books, maps, music, engravings, photographs, etchings, lithographic prints, bound or unbound, and charts, which shall have been printed more than twenty years at the date of importation, and all hydrographic charts, and publications issued for their subscribers or exchanges by scientific and literary associations or academies, or publications of individuals for gratuitous private circulation, not advertising matter, and public documents issued by foreign governments.

434. Books and pamphlets printed wholly or chiefly in languages other than English; also books and music, in raised print, used exclusively by the blind.

All textbooks used in schools and other educational institutions.

435. Books, maps, music, engravings, photographs, etchings, lithographic prints, and charts, specially imported, not more than two copies in any one invoice, in good faith, for the use and by order of any society or institution incorporated or established solely for religious, philosophical, educational, scientific, or literary purposes, or for the encouragement of the fine arts, or for the use and by order of any college, academy, school, or seminary of learning in the United States, or any State or public library, and not for sale, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

436. Books, libraries, usual and reasonable furniture, and similar household effects of persons or families from foreign countries, all the foregoing, if actually used abroad by them not less than one year, and not intended for any other person or persons, nor for sale.

450. Linotype and all typesetting machines, typewriters.

534. Kangaroo, sheep and goat skins dressed and finished, other skins and bookbinder's calf-skins, skins from morocco tanned, but unfinished.

538. Lithographic stones, not engraved.

545. Manuscripts.

560. Newspapers and periodicals; but the term "periodicals" as herein used shall be understood to embrace only unbound or paper-covered publications issued within six months of the time of entry, devoted to current literature of the day, or containing current literature as a predominant feature, and issued regularly at stated periods, as weekly, monthly, or quarterly, and bearing the date of issue.

571. Paper stock, crude, of every description, including all grasses, fibres, rags, waste, including jute, hemp and flax, waste, shavings, clippings, old paper, rope ends, waste rope, and waste bagging, and all other waste not specially provided for in this section, including old gunny cloth and old gunny bags, used chiefly for paper making.

572. Printing paper (other than paper commercially known as handmade or machine handmade paper, Japan paper, and imitation Japan paper by whatever name known), unsized, sized, or glued, suitable for the printing of books and newspapers, but not for covers or bindings, not specially provided for in this section, valued at not above 2½ cents per pound.

573. Parchment and vellum.

586. Professional books, implements, instruments, and tools of trade, occupation, or employment in the actual possession of persons emigrating to the United States owned and used by them abroad.

608. Skins of all kinds, raw, and hides not specially provided for in this section.

614. Stamps: Foreign postage or revenue stamps, canceled or uncanceled, and foreign government stamped post cards bearing no other printing than the official imprint thereon.

639. Type, stereotype metal, electrotype metal, linotype composition, all of the foregoing, old and fit only to be manufactured.

651. Mechanically ground wood pulp, chemical wood pulp, unbleached or bleached and rag pulp.

654. Original paintings in oil, mineral, water, or other colors, pastels, original drawings and sketches in pen and ink or pencil and water colors, artists' proof etchings, unbound, and engravings and woodcuts, unbound, and the words "etchings," "engravings," and "woodcuts" as used in this paragraph shall be understood to include only such as are printed by hand from plates or blocks etched or engraved with hand tools and not such as are printed from plates or blocks etched or engraved by photochemical or other mechanical processes; and the Senate agree to the same.

655. Works of art, drawings, engravings, photographic pictures, and philosophical and scientific apparatus brought by professional artists, lecturers, or scientists arriving from abroad for use by them temporarily for exhibition and in illustration, promotion, and encouragement of art, science, or industry in the United States, and not for sale, shall be admitted free of duty, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

656. Works of art, collections in illustration of the progress of the arts, photographs, imported in good faith for exhibition at a fixed place by any State or by any society or institution established for the encouragement of the arts, science, agriculture, or education, or for a municipal corporation; but bond shall be given under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

658. Works of art, collections in illustration of the progress of the arts and objects of art of ornamental character or educational value, which shall have been produced more than one hundred years prior to the date of importation, but the free importation of such objects shall be subject to such regulations as to proof of antiquity as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

PUBLICATION OF THE CONCLUDING PART OF A. GROWOLL'S "PROFESSION OF BOOKSELLING."

WHEN Mr. Growoll died suddenly he left the still unpublished third part of his "Profession of Bookselling" in a very unfinished condition. It had been his great wish to add this concluding part to the two volumes already published. Part One appeared in 1893; Part Two in 1895, and both of them met with great appreciation from the trade. Mr. Growoll was able to publish these two parts in quick succession, because the material for them was virtually ready before it was decided to bring it out in this more permanent form. For many years whenever a lull occurred in topics of current interest Mr. Growoll had been writing for THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY general editorials on the profession of bookselling and its allied branches. A man indefatigably busy in his service for the trade he found it difficult however, to get the time necessary to seek out the exact material he wished, and as he was extremely critical of all work that should appear finally under his sanction, year after year slipped by with the final work he had planned still uncompleted. The material was, however, virtually complete when Mr. Growoll's death came.

In the rearrangement of the work of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY office necessitated by Mr. Growoll's death, some little time necessarily elapsed, and the prolonged illness of Mrs. A. H. Leyboldt, on whom had fallen the work of preparing this third part for the press, delayed still further its publication. So much time had meanwhile elapsed since the publication of parts one and two that there was serious question as to whether it might be better worth while to re-work the first two parts and bring out a new volume with the material of the entire work up-to-date. This plan would not however have given purchasers of the first two parts their completing part and it was deemed more fitting that the whole work should be completed as Mr. Growoll originally planned. Nothing could show better than this the changes of book trade method brought about by the experience of the last two decades. It was finally decided therefore, to publish the work as Mr. Growoll left it, barring necessary editing and indexing, and to make it as a whole a fitting monument to his work for the American book trade, rather than to attempt to make it in any sense the last word on the subject. It is probable that all the older members of the trade at least all those who knew Mr. Growoll, will wish to have his "Profession of Bookselling" in unified form. The few parts remaining in stock are therefore to be bound in cloth or leather at the suggestion of the purchaser so far as they last.

This third part covers such subjects as the Correspondence Department, the Salesman, the Commercial Traveller, and the Old Book Trade; and the chapters dealing with these subjects show the same careful investigation, high ideals, and shrewd judgment for which Mr. Growoll always stood in the trade to which he literally gave most of the waking moments of his life. Although much of his work as a whole is now out of date, its fundamentals are as important and pertinent to-day as they were ten or twenty years ago, and there is little in either of the three parts that any bookseller can read without gaining both information and inspiration. Mr. Growoll stood for a standard of personal and professional character and evaluation of trade essentials that do not change with the changing years.

NEW "LITERARY SUPPLEMENT" PROPOSED.

ANOTHER project for syndicating book news to the newspapers is announced, the promoters in this case being Messrs. Woodward & Van Slyke of New York City. The plan proposes:

(1) The concentration into one newspaper in each of the eight cities of a minimum of 100,000 lines of publishers' advertising during the year beginning September 1, 1913.

(2) The publication of a syndicate literary department, or section, in each of these newspapers. This syndicate feature, which will consist of reviews of books, news about authors, articles tending to stimulate reading, etc., will be edited under the promoters' direction in New York, and will be published simultaneously in the eight newspapers.

(3) Promotion work among the booksellers of the eight cities and the surrounding towns.

The eight newspapers selected for the syndicate are: The Cleveland Plain Dealer, The Cincinnati Enquirer, The Pittsburgh Dispatch, The Baltimore News, The Indianapolis News, The Detroit Free Press, The St. Louis Republic, and The Minneapolis Journal.

SELLING HELPS.

YOUR CO-OPERATION DESIRED.

I HAVE just two things to say before getting down to the "brass tacks" of how, interested in the sale of books, all of us are going to sell more books—and incidentally make a better profit doing it.

You will find in this Selling Helps department from time to time, many ideas which are perhaps not entirely new to you. If you have tried them out you have undoubtedly proven their resultfulness. Perhaps it wouldn't be at all bad business to try them out again

Possibly in a different dress they will serve even better than they did the first time. But whether you have made use of them or not, remember that to many of our guild they are new, and that this department is intended to benefit all of us.

And finally, if you have found some new way of doing an old thing better, or have discovered and successfully tried out a new idea which you believe will help "the other fellow," just as it has helped you, let us hear about it. Co-operation of this kind counts tremendously. The columns of this department are open to you. Let us develop this "get together" spirit to the 'steenth degree. You will benefit by it, the other fellow will benefit by it, and we'll all be happy.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF LOCAL NEWS.

BRENTANO'S, in New York, took splendid advantage last month of the interest attending the convention of firemen held in the metropolis. A window display of helmets, fire fighting relics, old prints, etc., surrounding copies of Fire Chief Kenlon's new book "Fires and Fire-fighters," brought convention visitors from all over town to see it. In a ten-minute observation of this window I counted sixty-eight adults attracted to it. Four of these entered the store. If this ratio continued throughout the day, twenty-four persons per hour were brought into Brentano's that would have passed without buying had it not been for this unique playing up of the news interest of a local happening.

I have cited this simply to show how valuable this keeping in touch with local events can be made. Let me have a list of the conventions, special civic events, etc., scheduled for your city during the next several months, and I'll try to work out for you ideas that will make your store a center of interest and that will bring the buyers inside. Very often there is a special book or books that can be played up effectively at such a time; and it is too good an opportunity for "cashing in" to let go to waste.

WINDOWS WITH A POINT

Speaking of window displays, simply filling your windows with books is not necessarily a good way to even attract attention to them. Everyone passing your place knows it is a bookshop. Attention is keenest when it is directed. The eye takes in not a mass but some one thing at a time. The object of a window display is to make the passer-by stop, think, decide. Arrange your window with this idea in mind. Have some central focusing feature always, and change that feature frequently. People, then, won't pass your windows because they contain "only books"; they will stop to look because there will be something there they want to see.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

A CRITICAL study of Mr. Henry James is now in active preparation by the English critic, Mr. Ford Madox Hueffer.

At the recent "Exhibition of Sport" at the Hague the English "Encyclopedia of Sport" of William Heinemann was awarded the gold medal.

THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS give the setting for David Potter's new story of heroism and savagery, "The Streak," just published by Lippincott.

A NEW volume of plays by Mr. George Bernard Shaw, containing "Fanny's First Play" along with two others, will appear during the autumn.

"POLLYANNA" has reached the 75,000 mark without showing any signs of fatigue in the upward climb, thus contributing to the gladness of publisher and booksellers.

HENRY FROWDE and Hodder & Stoughton, the English publishers, have been awarded the Grand Prix for Medical and Scientific books and publications at the National Congress of Medicine.

NOTEWORTHY on the list of Sherman, French & Co. is Carl Gray's "A Plaything of the Gods," a tale of old California. An extensive advertising campaign for this book is planned for October.

"MAKING OVER MARTHA," a continuation of "Martha-by-the-Day," by Julie M. Lippmann, will be published by Holt on October 11th. "Martha-by-the-Day" has been a steady seller since its publication a year ago.

AUGUST HAROLD HEDGE has relinquished the editorship of the London Saturday Review, and its chief proprietor, Hon. Gervase Beckett, M. P. has become editor-in-chief, with the assistance of George A. B. Dewar as literary editor.

HAROLD BELL WRIGHT's next novel, to be called "The Eyes of the World" is due in 1914, and will be heralded by an advertising campaign which the publishers declare will be the biggest ever known to bookselling and publishing.

SEVERAL boys' books of the "up and doing" sort have just been issued by Appleton: "Five Yards to Go," by Hawley Williams; "Apache Gold," by Joseph A. Altsheler; "Strike Three," by William Heyliger; "Around the End," by Barbour and "The Texan Triumph," by Altsheler.

A NEW Ridgwell Cullum story appears on the Jacobs fall list—this time a Montana mining camp tale. "Sis Within," by Harriet Hobson, author of "Jinks' Inside," "Hunting on the Upper Yukon," by Thomas Martindale, "The Charm of Paris" and "The Charm of Edinburgh," compiled by Alfred H. Hyatt, are other offers from this house.

"JOEL CHANDLER HARRIS AND HIS HOME," a sketch by Myrta Lockett Avery has just been issued by the Uncle Remus Memorial Association. Besides a biography of Harris the pamphlet gives a bibliography and account of the purchase of "Wren's Nest" as an Uncle Remus memorial, eleven portraits of Harris and other illustrations.

"THE BROKEN HALO," the new novel by Florence L. Barclay, which the Putnams will publish in October, is the story of a woman whose intrinsic beauty of soul suffers not a marring touch from the experiences to which her life has been exposed. Under her transforming influence comes the hero, a man whom a cruel disillusion has driven into halobreaking.

A NEW "Billy Whiskers" book, a new line of linen books and a quartette of little gift books on friendship are among the Saalfeld offerings. The Auto Boys' adventures are continued and "Tabitha's Vacation" is added to the "Ivy Hall" series. Among other juveniles are "At the Little Brown House," by Ruth Alberta Brown and "Domestic Animals," an album of lithographs.

JUDGE GREGG, in the Probate court of Chicago last week Friday threw out the claims of Mrs. Lucinda Anderson, colored, that she is the widow of William Henry Lee, the wealthy publisher. The court dismissed her petition for leave to submit proof of heirship when it was decided that she had failed to make sufficient showing. The estate it is said, will not prove as large as was at first expected.

UNWEARIED by his escapades, which have already filled three lively novels, Wallingford starts on a new series of adventure, requiring all his cunning and daring, in "Wallingford and Blackie Daw," just published by the Bobbs-Merrill Co. "The Wondrous Wife," by Charles Marriott—apparently no follower of Sir Almroth Wright—is another Bobbs-Merrill novel, the story of a woman's splendid love and sacrifice.

G. W. DILLINGHAM COMPANY announces "Alias the Night Wind," which recently ran as a serial in The Cavalier—a story of a police frame-up, in which an innocent bank clerk is hounded by a diabolical plot. Rather than submit to arrest, he becomes a fugitive and a terror to his persecutors. Moving with the swiftness of a night wind he turns up in Boston, Baltimore, Washington, New York and other metropolitan cities, leaving a trail of the wounded and maimed in his wake.

SEPTEMBER 27th brought more than a dozen books from Dodd, Mead & Co. Among them were "The Destroyer," by Burton E. Stevenson, a new edition of Mrs. Gaskell's delightful "Wives and Daughters," "The Whimsy Girl," by Charlotte Canty, "Because You are You," by Kate Whiting Patch, "The Truth About Woman," by Mrs. Walter Gallichan, "Henrik Ibsen," by Henry Rose and "Bob Dashaway in the Frozen Seas," by Cyrus Townsend Brady.

ON October 1st Benziger's "Standard Fifty Cent Library" of copyright books was inaugurated with the publication of twenty-seven books. Other volumes will be added from time to time. The list of those ready includes "Dion and the Sibyls," by Miles Keon, "Marcella Grace," by Rosa Mulholland, "Fabiola," by Cardinal Wiseman, "My Lady Beatrice," by Frances Cooke, "The Shadow of Eversleigh," by Jane Lansdowne and "The Test of Courage," by H. M. Ross.

LESLIE W. QUIRK's gridiron story, "Tackle and Quarterback," recently published by McLoughlin Bros. should be especially popular with boys in this, the football season. Of the three tales comprising the book two are football stories, and the other deals with baseball. The same publishers have ready three volumes in "The Romance of Our Old Navy," by John De Morgan: "Don't Give Up the Ship," "Yankee Pluck on a Yankee Ship" and "Cruise of the Wasp and Hornet."

MARY RAYMOND SHIPMAN ANDREWS, by way of turning tables, has named her new book "The Eternal Masculine." It consists of her best stories of men and boys, stories of college, business, sport and adventure, and is just published by Charles Scribner's Sons. October 18th will bring "The Lost Road," by Richard Harding Davis, a collection of some of his most interesting stories. A fanciful little volume by Gouverneur Morris is also on the Scribner list, bearing the piquant title "If You Touch Them They Vanish."

Two works of fiction come from the Penn Publishing Company, "The Millionaire," by Edwin Bateman Morris, author of "Blue Anchor Inn," and "Glory of Youth," a love story by Temple Bailey in which two engaged people discover that they no longer love each other. "Unvisited Places of Old Europe," by Robert Shackleton shows that there are still some corners of England and the Continent where tourists are almost unknown. As usual this house offers a plentiful supply of juveniles, including additions to popular series.

"GIRLS' NAMES AND NAME-DAY AND BIRTHDAY BOOK," by Henry W. Fischer, published by Fischer's Foreign Letters of Bensonhurst, N. Y., gives the history of all girls' names, rare or familiar, explaining their meaning, their flower emblem, pet names and countless other details. If parents will consult these pages to be sure that the names they choose for their offspring are at once inspiring and appropriate, no doubt countless babies will be grateful. The volume includes a birthday register and spaces for other family news.

"TOBY" whose story is told in a book of that name, by Elizabeth Goldsmith, promises to be one of the most lovable characters of the fall novels—he is indeed a bewitching little dog, of real doggish devotion. Among other new and forthcoming Macmillan novels are "The Will to Live," a rather unusual, story of a heroine intensely alive, "Children of the Wild," stories of animal life by Charles G. D. Roberts, "The Stranger at the Gate," by Mabel Osgood Wright, a Christmas story, "His Father's Wife," by J. E. Patterson and Dostoevsky's "The Idiot."

THE publications of the Librairie Larousse of Paris are always of interest to American booksellers, in that their dictionaries, encyclopedias, French classics and books on the study of French are widely used in this country. A number of standard works have recently been added to their "Masterpieces of French Literature," including works by Mme. de Sévigné, Voltaire and Rabelais. "La Suisse Illustrée," by Albert Dauzat, appearing in weekly part, and "La Mer," by Clerc-Rampal, a de luxe volume, are added to the Larousse Quarto Collection.

CHILD life in foreign countries is the subject of a series initiated by E. P. Dutton & Co. as the "Little Schoolmate Series," Miss Florence Converse of the Atlantic Monthly staff is the editor, and the authors are well-known writers. Mme. Julia D. Dragoumis whose Greek stories have appeared in the Atlantic Monthly has written the first volume, "Under Greek Skies," now ready. "In Sunny Spain," by Katharine Lee Bates of Wellesley College will be ready very shortly. "A Boy in Eirinn," by Padraic Colum and other volumes on France, Germany, Scotland, etc., will follow.

FRANKLIN P. ADAMS remarked recently that moving is a serious proposition when you have a complete set of Arnold Bennett. Even so, let Arnold Bennett keep on writing. This year has brought "The Old Adam," "The Plain Man and his Wife" and "Paris Nights," the last named being in the nature of a glorified guide-book. Vividly the salons, cafes, theatres and people are shown, as though Bennett, as a traveling companion, pointed them out. An interesting booklet on Bennett, including an analysis of his novels will be sent upon request, without charge, by the George H. Doran Co.

"THE GOLDEN HOLLOW," by Rena Cary Sheffield, just published by the John Lane Company, will be welcomed by those who complain that the sadness of life is too often the theme of modern novels. Especially is a cheerful volume sought when the gift book question is at hand—and this need, it would seem, "The Golden Hollow" is fitted to supply. "Dolf Wyllarde's," Youth Will be Served," is another Lane publication—the problem suggested in the title being brought out in the story of a woman who must choose between her husband, whose work takes him to foreign climes, and her delicate baby.

ON October 1st Frederick A. Stokes Company will publish two novels, widely different in nature. One of the titles is "Susette, A Romance of Two Young People," by Dion Clayton Calthrop, a protégé of William J. Locke, and author of "St. Quin," which attracted some attention last year. His book is a whimsical romance about a man and a girl on a desert island, but this time the island has a modern house with all conveniences. "The White Thread," by Robert Halifax, is a story of London slums. The hero is a plumber and the heroine a servant girl whose great faith in humanity proves inspiring. The comic element has a large place in the book.

FOR the benefit of that large public to whom the publishing business is wrapped in mystery, Robert Sterling Yard has written "The Publisher," just published by Houghton Mifflin Company. The processes of selection, manufacture, exploitation and sale which lie behind the finished book are entertainingly explained, with plenty of incidental illustrative anecdote. As a publisher of long experience and the present editor of the Century Magazine, Mr. Yard is well able to explain the workings of the publisher's mind and the publisher's business. The four breezy articles which make up the book have all been reprinted in the PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY during the past year.

HEADING the list of Houghton Mifflin Company publications announced for October 4th is "The Story of Waitstill Baxter," a new novel by Kate Douglas Wiggin. There follow a book on "The Carolina Mountains," by Margaret W. Morley; a biography of the noted Unitarian minister, Charles Gordon Ames; "Revelation and the Ideal," by Dr. George A. Gordon of the Old South Church, Boston; "The Life of Lyman Trumbull" by Horace White, ex-editor of the New York Evening Post; a specially illustrated edition of a child's story, "The Golden Dog," by Clara Louise Burnham; and "The Quest of the Fish-Dog Skin," a new Indian story by James Willard Schultz.

ON the last day of September, Little, Brown and Company published: "The Joy of Youth," Eden Phillpotts' new novel; "Marama," a romance of the South Seas, by Ralph Stock; the new Tourists' Edition of "Ramona," by Helen Hunt Jackson; "The Story of Harvard," by Arthur Stanwood Pier, illustrated by Vernon Howe Bailey; "A Line o' Cheer for each Day o' the Year," a volume of cheerful verse, by John Kendrick Bangs; "The Major Operations of the Navies in the War of American Independence," by Captain A. T. Mahan; "Shakespeare and Stratford," by Henry C. Shelley; and two juvenile books, "The Tippity-Flippitts," by Edith B. Davidson, and "Twilight Town," by Mary Frances Blaisdell.

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & Co. announce a literary plan which will be a distinguished contribution to American bookmaking: The Seven Seas Edition of the Works of Rudyard Kipling, limited to 1050 sets of twenty-three volumes, newly arranged and each set signed by the author. In every way it is the purpose to make this set one of lasting value. The arrangement of the literary material is the result of the author's study in casting it in the form in which he wishes it to remain. There will be added new material now collected in book form for the first time including "Letters to the Family," etc. Another interesting feature is the dating of the stories and verses which will add much to the value of the edition to collectors and bibliographical students.

BRENTANO's publications for the coming season include, as usual, a number of historical and biographical memoirs, notable among which are "Memoirs of Count Roger de Damas," "A Great Coquette: Madame Recamier and Her Salon," "Torquemada: the Story of the Inquisition" and "Polly Peachum: Drury Lane Theatre in the Days of Queen Anne." "Clair de Lune, and other Troubadour Romances," by Machael West, is a gift book of the most sumptuous order. It is pictured in color from paintings by Evelyn Paul and contains illuminated decorations by the same artist. Besides the cloth bound edition and one in mediaeval leather a special edition of twenty-six copies on large paper is offered.

THE H. M. Caldwell Company, makes the following offers in the way of books for boys and girls: "Caldwell's Boys and Girls at Home for 1912," "Elfin Song," written and illustrated by Florence Harrison, "Doggy Doings," nursery rhymes by Emily Westrup, "Sambo and Susanna," by Ethel Parkinson—a book about two little picaninnies (and the kindergarteners tell us that books on picaninnies are desirable and hard to find), "Tales and Talks About Children," and "Children's Own Series of Picture Books," a four volume set by Harry Neilson. "The Portrait and Autograph Birthday Book" is one of this year's novelties. The Caldwell list also includes "Old Plantation Music," including text, music and 200 illustrations, "In the Garden of Delight," a nature anthology by John Richardson and "Here's a New One: A Book of After-Dinner Stories," by Adolph Davidson.

BUSINESS NOTES.

ALBANY, N. Y.—Clapp & Leake, booksellers and stationers, have been succeeded by R. Fred Clapp, Jr.

AURORA, MO.—N. V. H. Walker has opened a new book and stationery store.

BOULDER, COLO.—The Greenman Stores Co. have taken over the stock of books and stationery of Paul Raymond who has closed his business here.

CHICAGO, ILL.—Another new Chicago publishing venture is announced—The Laurentian Publishers. They state that they are making a new departure in the publishing field, in that they are "specializing in books by Chicago writers." Their publications will be in charge of Laurence C. Woodworth and Will Ransom, both of whom have acquired reputations for literary judgment and fine bookmaking in connection with the Brothers of the Book, whose productions they also direct. Their initial publication will be "The Beginning of Grand Opera in Chicago," by Karleton Hackett, the musical critic of the Chicago Evening Post. This volume will contain a history of Grand Opera in Chicago during its first decade, 1850 to 1859, and is full of interesting incidents and anecdotes.

FORT SCOTT, KAN.—The City book store has been bought by J. L. Brown from Gillies & Patrick.

GREENSBORO, N. C.—The Greensboro Book Company was chartered last week with a capital of $60,000 by B. G. and S. D. Gilmer.

KNOXVILLE, TENN.—The M. M. Newcomer Co. have recently enlarged their book department moving into an annex making a complete book, stationery and picture store. Mrs. J. R. Carnes who has charge of these departments is in a great measure responsible for the rapid growth and the popularity of "The Newcomer Book Store" it having more than doubled in size since she took charge about five years ago. The present annex is very handsomely fitted up and is one of the most complete book stores in the south.

LEBANON, PA.—A. W. Brown has just taken over the Wm. P. Gamber book and stationery store, 21 South Eighth street. Mr. Brown was for a number of years connected with the Hoskins Company, of Philadelphia. He will be glad to receive catalogues from manufactures and others in the trade.

MONTREAL, CAN.—A. T. Chapman's Bookstore is now at 190 Peel Street.

NEW YORK CITY.—Lester H. Lewis, of 81 Nassau Street, formerly a dealer in law books, has filed a petition in bankruptcy with liabilities $4,017 and assets $5, surrender value of life insurance. He made an assignment on Feb. 21, 1911.

PHILADELPHIA.—The Library Book-shop at 125 South 13th street has engaged the services of N. L. Brown, formerly of Brown Brothers' Book store.

POTSDAM, N. Y.—The Lockwood Department Store sustained a loss by fire.

ST PAUL, MINN.—Walter L. Beekman, "Beekman the Bookman," has locked for good the door of his little shop at 55 E. 5th street and ended a career of twenty-three years at that one address. His was an "old book store" of the old type, a meeting place for congenial literati, and scores of book lovers in the Northwest found in Mr. Beekman their mentor and literary adviser. Mr. Beekman plans to come to New York City where he will probably inaugurate a mail order book business.

TROY, N. Y.—It is reported that Charles A. Brewster will transfer his business to a new corporation on Oct. 1st.

WACO, TEX.—Woulfe & Co. are starting again at 618 Austin Street after being out of the book business four years.

WESTPORT, CT.—W. E. Nash, bookseller and stationer, has sold out to J. J. Connor.

Gastine, Louis Jules. Madame Tallien, Notre Dame de Thermidor, from the last days of the French Revolution until her death as Princess de Chimay in 1835; tr. from the French by J. Lewis May; with 17 illustrations. N. Y., J. Lane. 9+348 p. O. $3.50 n.

There is no one in the history of the French Revolution who has been more eagerly canonized than Madame Tallien; yet, according to M. Gastine, there is no one in that history who merited canonization so little. He has therefore set himself the task of dissipating the mass of legend and sentiment that has gathered round the memory of "La belle Tallien," and of presenting her to our eyes as she really was. Index.

Eleanor was in love, she was twenty and she was in Paris, all of which should have made for happiness, but her friends stepped in and decided to give her a career and she makes a great success in opera. Success is not happiness, as Eleanor finds when it comes between her and her American lover, and things only come right when Florimond, Prince de Saint Sauveur, lover of lovers, steps in and arranges them.

Hewlett, Maurice H: Bendish; a story in prodigality. N. Y., Scribner. c. 6+311 p. D. $1.35 n.

Story of England in the early nineteenth century. Lord Bendish is a youth with plenty of brains, which on occasion he uses brilliantly, but he never really accomplishes anything because his interest while burning vividly, at first, soon flags and his only really lasting enthusiasm is for his position as a peer. He writes poetry, using it as a weapon for political reform, but finds himself not taken as a power, and in disgust leaves England. Women he treats as toys, feeling for only one of them anything like a lasting affection, and her he loses through his own actions. Tom Moore, Leigh Hunt and other celebrities are characters of the story.

In this story of school life the "boy editor" is an ambitious student who lives entirely in his books. A serious mistake which he makes wakes him to a sense of realities and he sets out to accomplish something really useful.

Knipe, Emilie Benson and Knipe, Alden Arth. Beatrice of Denewood; a sequel to "The lucky sixpence"; il. by C. M. Relyea. N. Y., Century Co. c. 437 p. D. $1.25 n.

Little heroine of "the Lucky sixpence" was first carried to wealth and position in England, then back again to the land and the people whose friendliness in her forlorn childhood had won all her heart. Beatrice is a brave lass as well as a loving one; and right well does she serve her adopted country and the "Cousin John," who had been her brother and friend in time of need. Much of the story is laid in the later days of the Revolutionary War.

Lancaster, G. B. The law-bringers. N. Y., Doran. c. 4+11-487 p. D. $1.35 n.

Two men love the same woman in England and their friendship is embittered in consequence. Then as comrades in Canada, having joined the Northwest Mounted Police, they once more fall in love, and again both love the same woman, the unworthy half-breed Andree. The power of love to make, or mar a man or woman is the story's theme.

On his way back from the Orient the author made a little excursion into the Pyrenees. And so beautiful did he find this land of towering heights and lovely valleys spread along an azure sea; so quaint were the sleepy, secluded old towns, that his first little excursion led to other and longer trips, until he became well acquainted with the land. The country that the author describes is not the Western Pyrenees, much visited by tourists, but the Eastern, unfrequented and far more beautiful end of the range. Index.

The Publishers' Weekly

Subscription Rates

One year, postage prepaid in the United States, $4.00; foreign, $5.00.
Single copies, 10 cents. Educational Number, in leatherette, 50 cents; Christmas Bookshelf, 25 cents.

Advertising Rates

One page $25 00
Half page 14 00
Quarter page 7 00
Eighth page 4 00
One-sixteenth page 2 00

The above rates are for unspecified positions. Special rates for preferred positions (full pages only).

Higher rates are charged for the Summer Reading, Educational Number and Christmas Bookshelf, and for the monthly Book Review supplement sections.

Advertising copy should reach us Tuesday noon—earlier if proof is desired out-of-town. Forms close Thursday night.

Under the heading "BOOKS WANTED" book-trade subscribers, under their own names, are given five nonpareil lines (exclusive of address) free advertisement for specific books out of print in any issue except special numbers, but not exceeding 100 lines a year. If over five lines are sent the excess is at 10 cents a line. Books not out of print, unspecified wants, repeated matter, and all advertisements from nonsubscribers cost 10 cents a line. Objectionable books are excluded so far as they are noted.

In answering, please state edition, condition and price, including postage or express charges. Houses that will deal exclusively on a cash-on-delivery basis should put [Cash] after their firm name. The appearance of advertisements in this column, or elsewhere in the WEEKLY, does not furnish a guarantee of credit. While it endeavors to safeguard its columns by withholding the privileges of advertising should occasion arise, booksellers should take usual precautions in extending credit.

"Books Wanted" must be designated by actual title, not by "any."

Write your wants plainly, on one side of the sheet only. Illegible "wants" are ignored. The WEEKLY is not responsible for errors. Parties with whom there is no account must pay in advance.

Under "BOOKS FOR SALE" or for other small undisplayed advertisements, the charge is 10 cents a nonpareil line. No reduction for repeated matter. Count seven words to the line.

Reference List of New Publications

Recorded in SEPTEMBER, 1913

This Reference List enters the books recorded during the month under (1) author, in Clarendon type, anonymous books having Clarendon type for the first word; (2) title in Roman; (3) subject-heading in SMALL CAPS; (4) name of series in Italics.

A colon after initial designates the most usual given name, as: A: Augustus; B: Benjamin; C: Charles; D: David; E: Edward; F: Frederick; G: George; H: Henry; I: Isaac; J: John; L: Louis; N: Nicholas; P: Peter; R: Richard; S: Samuel; T: Thomas; W: William.

For books received sizes are given in CAPS, Q, O, D, etc., books not received sizes are given in Roman numerals, 4°, 8°, 12°, etc. Prices are added except when not supplied by publisher or obtainable only on specific request. Where not specified the binding is cloth.

Those desiring to learn the entire publishing output of the month in any one field should look under one of the following MAIN HEADINGS:

PHILOSOPHY	MEDICINE	LITERATURE
RELIGION AND THEOLOGY	AGRICULTURE	POETRY
SOCIOLOGY	HOUSEHOLD ECONOMICS	DRAMA
LAW	BUSINESS	FICTION
EDUCATION	ENGINEERING, TECHNOLOGY	BIOGRAPHY
PHILOLOGY	FINE ARTS	GEOGRAPHY AND TRAVEL
SCIENCE	GAMES, SPORTS, AMUSEMENTS	HISTORY

Besides the titles listed under each of these headings cross reference is made from each to a limited number of cognate headings which collectively give all the new publications of the month in the given subject or group of subjects.

Inquirers looking for books on a specific topic should look under the general subject to which that topic belongs, i.e. GEOLOGY rather than SILURIAN PERIOD; MATHEMATICS rather than CALCULUS; ECONOMICS rather than WAGES. Books regarding specific Religious denominations, countries and persons, however, should still be sought for under their individual names.

JUST PUBLISHED

Vocabulaire Technique de l'Editeur

A "Dictionary of Publishing Terms" in seven languages: French, German, English, Spanish, Dutch, Italian, Magyar. Large Quarto, 365 pages, cloth, $4.00 net; half leather, $4.50 net.

Prepared by the Executive Committee of the International Congress of Publishers in cooperation with the Publishers Associations of the different countries which undertook the work of translating the terms.

The main body of the book consists of an alphabetical (and serially numbered) dictionary of publishing terms in French, with a full definition of each in that language, and the equivalent terms in each of the other six languages in parallel columns.

At the back of the book are key indexes, alphabetically arranged, for each of these six languages, by means of which the reader is referred back to the main body of the book for the foreign equivalents of any word sought.

The appendix gives certain practical comparative tables, notably those on the sizes of paper, type sizes and proof-reading signs of the different languages.

A limited number of copies are offered for sale by the American agents.

OCTOBER LEADERS

A Riot of Life and Love

Diana Ardway

By VAN ZO POST

Illustrated in color by Gayle Hoskins.

12mo. [Cloth, $1.25 net. Postpaid, $1.37.

This strong unconventional love-story is a tale of primitive passions in modern characters. The author pictures scenes and people with startling frankness. It is a riot of life and love, bubbling over with wit, quick in action.

A New Novel by
E. F. BENSON

Thorley Weir

12mo. Cloth, $1.35 net. Postpaid, $1.50.

Mr. Benson holds an enviable position among English writers. His novels are remarkable for their lucidity of expression as well as their depth of insight into human relations. This story is both grave and gay, and Mr. Benson talks well about things that really matter. Each new book from his pen finds him writing for a deservedly increasing audience.

*By the Author of
"From the Car Behind"*

The Unafraid

By ELEANOR M. INGRAM

Three illustrations in color by Edmund Frederick.

12mo. Cloth, $1.25 net. Postpaid, $1.37.

Readers of Miss Ingram's automobile racing story, "From the Car Behind," will remember with pleasure the American impetuosity of that tale. The new novel is written in the same lively style. It is a joyous, dashing, care-killing story—a characteristic Ingram achievement.

A Big Tale of the Philippines

The Streak

By DAVID POTTER

Illustrated by Gayle Hoskins and M. J. Spero.

12mo. Cloth, $1.25 net. Postpaid, $1.37.

There have been numerous stories of the Philippines, but it has remained for David Potter to do for the "Islands" in "The Streak" what Kipling's "Kim" did for India, and Hichens' "Garden of Allah" for Egypt. It is an exceptionally strong story of heroism and savagery, of wild passion and tender love.

Ruth Anne

By ROSE CULLEN BRYANT

Illustrated by Will Grefé.

12mo. Cloth, $1.25 net. Postpaid, $1.37.

The splendid humanness of this story will give great enjoyment to all who do not care for novels of the wishy-washy type. It is a love story of rare naturalness, uplifting in its outlook upon life, and the romance of Ruth Anne and Dr. Hollander is one of subtle beauty.
